Learning Together, Happy Together

27th January 2017

Dear Parent/Carer,

We have had an exciting time in school this week as Chinese New Year approaches this Saturday, The Year of the Rooster. Each class have marked the event and celebrated with various activities across the week. On Wednesday each class took part in a Chinese Dragon Dancing workshop with a specialist dancer, learning traditional Chinese dance moves and also Ribbon Dancing techniques. The whole class worked together to create a Dragon Dance using props and thoroughly enjoyed the experience!

Over the past fortnight the children have been working hard on their class blogs, writing about their learning experiences in school! It is wonderful to read all of the children's responses. Well done to all of our Little Robins for contributing to the class blogs!

Thank you to all of the Year 1 parents who attended the first official meeting of the Year 1 Phonics Project, following the meet and greet Afternoon Tea which got the project off to a great start! Miss Rice and Miss Petre were overwhelmed by the support and enthusiasm and really enjoyed this week's activity with parents and children.

At Robins Lane, we would like to mark World Cancer Day (4th February 2017) in order to support a very important charity, which touches so many people's lives. Therefore, Friday 3rd February will be a whole school dress down day in return for a small donation to the charity.

Kind regards,
Mrs J Kilshaw
Acting Headteacher
