Year 1 In the context of: - Rhythm in the Way We Walk and Banana Rap; - Boomin' Boom Whackers; - In the Groove; - Round and Round; - Reflect, Rewind and Replay.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Start to recognise/identify very simple style indicators and different instruments used. March, clap, tap your knees, move to find and internalise the pulse. Begin to understand what it means to find the pulse. Start using basic musical language to describe the music you are listening to and your feelings towards it. Begin to listen, with respect, to other people's ideas and feelings towards the music you have listened to. Discuss simple dimensions of music (pulse, rhythm, pitch, and perhaps tempo and dynamics) and how they fit into the music you are listening to. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Begin to find and internalise the pulse on their own or with support. Try to or demonstrate more confidently how they find/feel the pulse. Begin to demonstrate how pulse, rhythm and pitch work together - copy a simple rhythm over the pulse and sing back over the Games Track in time. Clap the rhythm of your name, favourite food, favourite colour etc. Begin to understand how pulse, rhythm and pitch and perhaps dynamics and tempo work together and are sprinkled. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Begin to understand working together as part of a group and with their friends, gradually developing the confidence to sing alone. Begin to understand the importance of warming up their voices and to establish a good singing position. Start to consider that words mean something and how they work together with the music. Sing with a good sense of the pulse internally and try to sing together with the group. Stop and start as appropriate, begin to follow a leader/conductor. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Begin to play a classroom instrument as part of a group/ensemble and as part of the song that is being learnt. Move between differentiated parts as required using a sound – before -symbol approach. Learn to stop/start and respond to basic musical cues from the leader/conductor. Learn how to treat your instrument with respect and how to play it correctly. Play as part of your ensemble/group with a sound-before-symbol (by ear) approach. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Explore and create simple musical sounds with voices and instruments within the context of the song being learnt. Begin to understand through activity, that when you improvise you make up your own tune (or rhythm) using one or two notes or you can sing. An improvisation is not written down or notated. If written down in any way or recorded, it becomes a composition. Improvise using very simple patterns on your instrument and/or voice. Create your own simple rhythmic patterns that lead to melodies in a group or a solo situation. Start to perform your own rhythms and melodies with confidence and understanding in the group. Start improvising using one or two notes. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Create your own very simple melodies (usually in a group) within the context of the song that is being learnt. Create compositions using one or two notes, increasing to three notes if appropriate. Record the composition in any way appropriate. Notate music in different ways, using graphic/ pictorial notation, video, ICT. Musically demonstrate a very simple understanding and use of the interrelated dimensions of music as appropriate within this context of creating and making music e.g. getting louder (dynamics), quieter (dynamics), higher (pitch), lower (pitch). Begin to recognise/identify the awareness of a link between shape and pitch using graphic notations or simply writing the melody in any way we will remember it. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Start to work together as part of an ensemble/ band. Remember the importance of starting and ending together. Try to follow the conductor/ band leader. Perform what you have learnt to other people. Play your instrument, improvise and play your compositions as part of this performance and with as much confidence as possible. Perform with some understanding that the performance can include everything that has been undertaken during the learning process of the unit. Practise, rehearse and present performances with some awareness of an audience. Begin to realise that performance can influence how music is presented. Try to communicate your ideas, thoughts and feelings through simple musical demonstration. Watch a recording and/or discuss the performance. Offer helpful and thoughtful comments and feedback about others.
